

Singapore Cyclists to Taiwan: Practical Guide to Laws & Safety

1 Core Challenge: Drive Direction Completely Opposite

Drive on the Right >>>

Taiwan: Drive on the right
(Singapore: Drive on the left)

Overcoming Muscle Memory

- CROSSWALK: Check traffic from the left.
- ROUNDABOUT: Enter & circulate counter-clockwise.
- LOOK BACK: Adjust habitual look-back actions.
- INITIAL ADVICE: Slow down, practice consciously.

2 Required Course: Two-Stage Left Turn Process

3 Prohibited Roads & Designated Lanes

RIGHT-OF-WAY ATTRIBUTION
(SLOW VEHICLES)

- Should ride in slow lane or far right edge.
- Must ride in designated lanes if provided.

EXPRESSWAYS, HIGHWAYS,
& TUNNELS

National Highways,
Expressways
Prohibited.

- National Highways, Expressways Prohibited.
- Most elevated bridges and long tunnels prohibited.
- Verify routes when planning.

DESIGNATED LANES

- Should ride in designated lanes.

4 Equipment & Behavioral Codes

LIGHTS & REFLECTORS

- Use a white front light at night or in poor visibility.
- Equip a rear red reflector or tail light.

Fine: NT$300-600

PROHIBITED BEHAVIORS

- No hand-held phone use while riding.

- Zero tolerance for drunk cycling.

DUI fine: NT$600-1,200
Refusal to test: NT$2,400

- No side-by-side riding.

SAFETY RECOMMENDATIONS

- Wear a cycling helmet.

- Wear bright clothing or a reflective vest.

- Avoid riding during peak traffic hours.

Police
110

Ambulance
119

Obey traffic rules and have a safe, pleasant ride in Taiwan!

Copyright © BikeExplorer

www.bikexc.com

+886 2 29691096

tour@bikexc.com

山海戀單車FB粉專

山海戀單車LINE@